Father can wear one with dignity.
Son can wear one with dash.

They are not too pert for a Director's Meeting, nor too pious for a Frat House reunion.

They add about three inches to a short man's height and something like 20 per cent more speed to a tall man's carriage.

By placing a seam around the human figure, just so, the designers of EDW. G. WALLS' clothes have conquered the world as far as style is concerned.

By keeping the price down to $25 and $35 a Suit, we very naturally expect to master the local situation.
